Test 15

Once there was a man who had four sons . They were always fighting with each other . The father was worried and wanted to teach them a good lesson . When he was very ill and lay dying in his bed , he asked his sons to come to him . When they came the old father gave them a bundle of sticks and said , “ can you break these sticks ? “

Each one of them took the bundle . The first son tried to break it , but failed . He tried very hard and finally gave up . Then it was the turn of the second son to try his luck . He thought it would be an easy task and picked up the bundle easy .

He tried his best to break it , but nothing happened .Then , the third son tried to break it , but he couldn't do anything either .

Meanwhile , the youngest son jeered at his brothers and thought they were very incompetent . He thought he was very clever and took one stick at a time and easily broke all of them .

The old father then smiled at his son and said , “ children , do you understand what happened ? It is always easy to break the sticks one by one , but when they are bundled together , none of you could break them . In the same way , the four of you should always be together . No one will be able to hurt you then.”

The four brothers realized what their father was trying to teach them and forgot all their enmity and learnt that unity is strength . From that day onwards , they never fought with each other and lived together in peace and harmony .
